

Understandings and Questions

Enduring Understandings

1. Unit:

- Students will understand that art influences thoughts and opinions of current events through digital media, performance, and visual creations.

2. English:

- Students will understand that poetry is a meaningful and appropriate medium to express their thoughts, beliefs, views, and ideas about a vast array of topics.
- Students will understand that it is important to develop their own ideas about artistic pieces that are outside of societal norms.

3. Math:

- Students will understand that geometric relationships, patterns, and functions can be used to develop mathematical arguments with respect to the characteristics and properties of two- and three-dimensional art.
- Students will understand that visualization, spatial reasoning, and geometric modeling can be used to solve problems in multiple fields, including mathematics and art.

4. Science:

- Students will understand that the different forms of art can be used to present similar conceptual ideas and content.
- Students will understand that scientific discoveries have led to the advancement and creation of 21st century art.

5. Social Studies:

- Students will understand that art is used to

Guided Questions

1. Unit:

- Why does art influence thoughts and opinions of current events by digital media, performance, and visual creations.

2. English:

- How can tone and inflection dramatically or subtly change a piece of performance art?
- What is performance art's affect on our society?

3. Math:

- How can math be applied to create and interpret art?
- How can technology be used to explore, expand, and interpret mathematics in terms of art?

4. Science:

- How is scientific understanding used to create different forms of art?
- Why has art of the 21st century changed the way science is taught?

5. Social Studies:

- Why is art used to communicate and communicate and commentate on society and events.

- Students will understand that there can be many interpretations and ways to view a piece of art.

commentate on society and events?

- How can there be many interpretations and meanings in one piece of art?